

Himalayan Trek
Gidara Bugyal Trek (Uttarakhand)
10 - 19 May 2024

Gidara Bugyal is a hidden gem in the Uttarkashi region of Uttarakhand. Being one of the largest high altitude (12000 feet) meadows in this country, the Gidara Bugyal is twice as big as Dayara Bugyal and Ali and Bedni Bugyal. It takes almost 2 days to traverse the entire length of the Bugyal but surely one of the most stunning experiences.

Most of the trail goes through lush green high altitude meadow booming with flowers by trekking on a gradually ascending but Moderate trail.

Highlights of Gidara Bugyal Trek

- ⊙ The vast expanse of lush green meadows
- ⊙ Stunning views of Banderpoonch Peak, Gangotri Ranges, Draupadi ka danda, Jaonli & Shrikanth peak.
- ⊙ The hot springs of Gangnani lies on the path to Bangeli.
- ⊙ The trail passes through dense forests of oak, pine, and rhododendron trees.
- ⊙ Amazing campsites with magical sunsets.

The full bloom of myriad flowers covers the entire meadow during the spring season. This heavenly place is enveloped with its peace and serenity that calms one's body, mind and soul. The floral meadows of Gidara Bugyal offer an enchanting scenic landscape.
